

Traditional Certification Route:

Undergraduate Students - License Addition

➤ Urban Teacher Education Program – Option I | IU Northwest

- The Urban Teacher Education Program (UTEP) is experience-rich, field-based, and leads to teacher licensing (in selected areas) through undergraduate and graduate programs, Option I and Option II, respectively.
- Option I is designed for undergraduates and offers a unique opportunity for those enrolled in the SOE to do a yearlong experience in an urban professional development school and obtain certification in elementary education.
